

SURVIVING SHARK TANK!

LIVING THE AMERICAN DREAM

Featured on the Today Show, ABC World News Tonight, The Nate Berkus Show, The Insider, The Queen Latifah Show, The Taste, and CNN with Anderson Cooper.

Kim Nelson became America's hottest entrepreneur and small business success story when appearing on Shark Tank. She navigated her way through shark-filled waters on America's #1 reality show, Shark Tank, proving that tenacity and unflappable confidence are all recipes for achieving the American Dream and building a multi-million dollar business.

Shark Tank star, Kim Nelson is 5' 4", but she packs a giant-size message for her audiences on how she is living the American Dream. You too can ignite your power by listening to her fascinating, fast-paced keynote presentation.

Kim Nelson is a resilient frontrunner businesswoman who's playing for big stakes. "Entrepreneurship is an attitude that requires the belief you can conquer anything," says Nelson. "My tenacity and determination set me on a course to Shark Tank and then catapulted my company to become one of America's most talked about business success stories."

Barbara Corcoran, the savvy billionaire businesswoman, invested $50,000 for 25% ownership in Kim's company, Daisy Cakes. While other Sharks were eating the Daisy Cakes, Corcoran made Kim an offer and asked that she pay her $1 a cake until she "repaid" her $50,000 investment. Kim paid back every dime! Sales went from $27,000 to more than $3.1 million as of today.

Business lessons your audience will takeaway from Kim's presentation...

- Shark Tank strategies for building a multi-million dollar business
- By using her formula, you too can go from rags to riches with your dream
- How to avoid the perils of growing a business too big too fast
- Learn what goes on behind the scenes at Shark Tank—before and after the nerve-racking pitch to the sharks

From Standing Ovations to What Everyone's
Saying About Kim Nelson and Daisy Cakes:

"Kim speaks from the heart. She's living the American Dream and I'm so glad she is on my team. Kim has unlimited gumption!"

- BARBARA CORCORAN

"We love the company Daisy Cakes. We've shared their delicious cakes with friends and family for the holidays and special occasions. People are literally rapturous about them."

-TED DANSON AND MARY STEENBURGEN, ACTORS

MEET SHARK TANK STAR KIM NELSON:

Located in Pauline, South Carolina, Kim is the author of the book, Daisy Cakes: Share a Slice of Love. She taught the art of baking for over six years and owned a successful catering business. Daisy Cakes is a family affair and includes Kim's mother Geraldine who is running rings around everyone and is at work everyday.

Kim is married with three children. Her passion for bringing joy to her customers with a "slice of love" in every cake she bakes never ceases. Kim Nelson is a popular entrepreneur and business-woman who has proven that you can have your cake and eat it too!

Hire Shark Tank Star
Kim Nelson to speak
at Your Next Event,
Conference or Meeting!

Contact: Betty Garrett, President of Garrett Speakers International at 1-800-787-2840 or 972-513-0054, or email Betty@GarrettSpeakers.com

